Fishbaugh, Chaplain of the Week for the Chautauqua United Church of Christ Society, and who was a missionary to Zimbabwe, Africa, 1970-73, will present a slide show, "African Adventure," during the Thursday evening worship at 6:45 p.m. in Randell Chapel of the Society Headquarters, 6 Bowman.

Lubavitch House opens here

Rabbi Noson Gurary of Chabad House in Buffalo, announces the opening of Lubavitch House, Rebbetzin Chaya Schneerson Hall in Chautauqua Institution, 37 Miller Rd.

This is a new Jewish educational center that will be a physical place for Jews to study, where people can come together, exchange ideas, and learn in an active way. Its theme and goal is to educate and stimulate Jews of all persuasions and backgrounds about their heritage in a positive manner.

Rabbi Gurary says, "We will get right to the essence of every Jew, and cut through the labelling of Orthodox, Conservative, and Reform. We all have the same soul. There is one God, one Torah, and one people. The labelling of Jews by affiliation tends to divide us, rather than to unite us. we are all given free choice. But before we can make an educated choice, we must first learn the basics of what being Jewish can do for one, and one's environment. Then, and only then,

"The Master-Mind Principle" will be the subject of discussion at 6:45 today at the Unity Denominational House at 9 Wiley Avenue.

Don Abbott from Erie, Pa., will lead the discussion.

Baptist

Tonight the midweek service will begin with a short hymn sing at 6:45 p.m. followed by a presentation on the ministry of the "Habitat For Humanity" led by Rev. Douglas Harris, who is serving with his wife this week as chaplain of Baptist House. Rev. Harris is co-pastor of the First Baptist Church of Detroit, Mich.

Christian Focus

Chautauquans for a Christian Focus is an organization founded in September of 1986 by a group of Chautauquans who have a commitment to the Chautauqua challenge and its significance. Our meetings provide a forum for dialogue with insight derived from historical record and tradition. We call upon our faith to unite us in a common purpose and are motivated by a genuine love for Chautauqua and a firm desire to assure Judeo-Christian doctrine and values remain a primary influence in organization as we continue our efforts to preserve our heritage and faith.

Summaries of all the meetings are available on the second floor of the library. All Chautauquans are invited for a brown bag lunch at the Lutheran House on Thursday, August 4 at 12:15 p.m.

can we make the real choice. We are in a time frame when people are ready to search for their religious identity. More and more, there is a need to give people a feeling that they too, are special. One needs to feel that he is doing something in a very practical way. Chautauqua is noted for its atmosphere of intellectual inquiry, and therefore it is a perfect setting for the establishment of such an educational center."

Lubavitch is part of a world-wide educational movement, dedicated to the education of Jews of all backgrounds. Courses are as follows: Monday 3:30-5 p.m. Jewish Mysticism, Tuesday 3-5:30 p.m. The Dynamics of Jewish Philosophy, Wednesday 3:30-5 p.m. Talmudic Law, Thursday 3:30-5 p.m. Jewish Folklore. Shabbat Services are as follows: 9 a.m. Introduction to prayer, 9:30 a.m. Service, 3:30 p.m. Oneg Shabbat/Children's Program, and at 7 p.m. Adult Study Group.
